AT THE BUSINESS MEETING, Mrs. Harrison, the president general, surrendered the chair to Mrs. Cabell, the hostess of the evening, and the latter presided over the deliberations of the society. The secretary general, Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth, read the proposed constitution and bylaws, and, on motion of Miss Eugenia Washington, they were unanimously adopted. Mrs. M. S. Lockwood, the historian general, read a letter announcing the presentation of some interesting revolu-tionary relics. Mrs. Flora Adams Darling announced the election as honorary vice presidents general of Mrs. James K. Polk, Mrs. Thomas A. Hendricks and Mrs. Admiral Porter, and read letters from them congratulating the daughters upon their successful organization. Upon the suggestion of Mrs. Walworth the words "Amor Patria" were adopted as the motto of the society, and it-was decided to have the figure of a Puritan maid placed upon the

The society now has for one of its immediate aims the raising of subscriptions of $25,000 to construct a statue of Washington to be presented to France as a slight return for the La-fayette and Bartholdi statues. A committee to ake charge of the matter was appointed, with HAVE Your measure taken for a pair of our Mrs. Justice Field as chairman and E. Francis

Players' League. At last evening's meeting of the Players' League in Pittsburg the Pittsburg and New York clubs formally presented their resignations, which were ordered to be held over for the sixty days required by the constitution before final acceptance. An election was then held, resulting in the choice of Charles A. Prince of Boston as president; A. L. Johnson of Cleveland, vice president, and F. H. Brunnell of Chicago, secretary and treasurer. After Messrs, Johnson, Prince and Ward were appointed as a conference or arbitration committee to settle disputes, &c., Cincinnati was admitted to memb-ship in the league. Applicathen adjourned until this morning.

It is reported that during the meeting the representatives of the Pittsburg and New York clubs were unmercifully berated for the weakness they have displayed. It is also stated that although Pittsburg and New York may have consolidated with the National League, they will be unable to deliver the goods, as it is believed that all of the players will stick to the brotherhood.

GEORGETOWN.

GEORGETOWN PASSENGERS OUT IN THE COLD. The practice of certain conductors of the Metropolitan Railroad Company, when making their last trips for the day, of informing homeward bound Georgetown passengers on their arrival at the stables that the car turns in at the stable and that they must wait for the next car has been on the increase of late, to such an extent that a general complaint is heard. Last night a car turned in at the stable and in, when one of the waiting passengers declared that he was going to get in the next car whether it turned in at the stable or not. That car carried the waiting passengers home.

FOR RELIEF OF AGED COLORED PROPLE.

For some time past the workers in the dif-ferent charities of the town have seen the necessity of providing some shelter for very aged colored people utterly unable to work for themselves, and in a number of cases without relatives to work for them. In view of this fact it has been the effort of a number of ladies to raise means with which to establish a small Wetherall was one of the well-known business men of the city. For years he was associated with Mr. Geo. W. Cochran in the tobacco business, but of late years he has had his own store at the corner of 12th and F streets.
